The Law 11

1. Introduction

1. 1.1 This policy applies to all persons working for us or on our behalf, including employees at all levels whether permanent or temporary, directors, & volunteers. This procedure does not form part of any employee's contract of employment. It may be amended at any time and we may depart from it depending on the circumstances of any case.
2. 1.2 All organisations face the risk of things going wrong or of unknowingly harbouring malpractice. By promoting a culture of openness within Bale's Farm, employees, partners and other stakeholders are encouraged to raise issues which are of concern at work. By knowing about malpractice at an early stage, steps can be taken to safeguard the interests of all staff and prevent fraud and corruption before it happens.
3. 1.3 Employees should not hesitate to "speak up" or "blow the whistle" if they believe malpractice may be occurring.

2. Aim

1. 2.1 The aim of the policy is to help employees, volunteers and other partners to raise any serious concerns they may have about colleagues or Bale's Farm with confidence and without having to worry about being victimised or disadvantaged in any way as a result.
2. 2.2 The policy will ensure everyone is aware of what to do and the appropriate person to notify in the event of concerns around serious malpractice, breaches of regulations or criminal offences and will allow for investigation of matters where there is 'reasonable belief' that malpractice is or may be occurring. It will also advise on the protection they will receive from Bale's Farm and offered under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 (PIDA).
3. 2.3 It should be noted that the whistleblowing procedures should not be used in relation to employee grievances concerning individual terms and conditions of employment or other aspects of the working relationship which are handled under the Bale's Farm grievance policy.

3. What is Whistleblowing?

1. 3.1 Whistleblowing is the reporting of suspected wrongdoing or dangers in relation to our activities. This includes bribery, fraud or other criminal activity, miscarriages of justice, health and safety risks, damage to the environment and any breach of legal or professional obligations.
2. 3.2 Sometimes we may have concerns about events that are taking place at work. Generally these concerns are resolved through provision of information and informal discussions with the Line Manager or other senior people. When an individual feels that the informal route is not appropriate they make a formal disclosure.
3. 3.3 The term 'Whistleblowing' is used to describe a formal disclosure of alleged corruption, malpractice or wrongdoing made to the appropriate person in authority. In the case of Bale's Farm this disclosure might be based on a colleagues conduct during the course of employment or about Bale's Farms systems, procedures or custom and practice.

4. Protection of the whistle-blower

1. 4.1 Bale's Farm is committed to the Whistleblowing Policy and individuals are encouraged to raise concerns about malpractice in the context of the policy. Concerns will be treated seriously and actions taken in accordance with this policy.
2. 4.2 Individuals may be anxious that, by reporting genuine whistleblowing concerns their actions may leave them vulnerable. It is important to emphasise that Bale's Farm will not tolerate the victimisation, intimidation or penalisation of anyone raising a genuine concern, anyone involved in the subsequent investigation or anyone acting as a witness.
3. 4.3 Anyone responsible for any such action against individuals making genuine disclosures will be the subject of disciplinary action.
4. 4.4 Whistleblowers receive protection under the PIDA Act. Further information can be found at the end of the policy under Appendix 1

5. Reporting your concern informally

1. 5.1 Employees may informally raise their concern with their manager first. This may be a verbal discussion or in writing. The issue will be treated in confidence. If the manager cannot deal with it they will take it to their Director or the next most senior person within Bale's Farm.
2. 5.2 If the employee feels the Manager is an inappropriate person to talk to, they may take their concern to their Director. If the concern involves the CEO the employee or manager/appropriate Director may talk to the trustees for them to investigate and take action.
3. 5.3 Where the individual is not comfortable speaking with the managers and remains unsure whether to use this procedure or to begin whistleblowing action, then they can obtain independent advice by contacting the charity Public Concern at Work on 0207 404 6609.
4. 5.4 All concerns will be investigated and dealt with as appropriate. The Manager involved will ensure that the CEO is informed and involved as appropriate. The staff member who raised the concern or issue will be informed of the outcome of the investigations and what, if any, action has been taken.
5. 5.5 If the staff member is unhappy about the speed, conduct or outcome of the investigation, they should put their concerns in writing to the CEO. They should write to their senior line manager if the CEO is personally involved. The CEO (or senior line manager) will investigate the complaint, and report back to the member of staff with their findings and what, if any, action has been or will be taken.

6. Reporting your concern formally

6.1 Upon reaching a decision to carry out a formal disclosure employees and associated persons should be reminded of their duty of confidentiality to both Bale's Farm and its clients. All formal concerns MUST be raised in writing (in a letter or in an email) to the CEO, or another Senior Line Manager if it is inappropriate to involve the CEO / Senior Line Manager, who will handle the disclosure to the agreed procedures in place. The person receiving the disclosure is referred to throughout this policy as the Appropriate Person, and will remain consistent throughout the process.

6.2 Importantly, and to guarantee protection under the regulations, a whistleblower must meet specified criteria so that that their disclosure can be considered a qualifying disclosure under the PIDA Act. These are as follows:

1. 6.2.1 The disclosure must be made to an appropriate person.
2. 6.2.2 The person making the claim must have reasonable belief that wrongdoing is being or is about to be committed.
3. 6.2.3 The disclosure must reasonably believe it to be substantially true and that the disclosure is in the public interest.
4. 6.2.4 The person making the claim should not collect the information to support the allegations improperly.

7. Malicious Whistleblowing

1. 7.1 Where it is found that the whistle-blower makes an allegations maliciously, and:

1. 7.1.1 Does not act in the public interest;
2. 7.1.2 Makes an allegation without having reasonable grounds for believing it to be substantially true;
3. 7.1.3 Collects the information to support the allegations improperly, or;
4. 7.1.4 Makes an allegation for personal or 3rd party gain.

They will be subject to formal disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal and in some cases may be subject to criminal investigation where illegality has occurred in order to achieve those aims.

2. 7.2 Additionally where this criterion is met or the employee engages in improper conduct in relation to whistleblowing, they are unlikely to be protected as a whistle-blower under the PIDA Act.

8. Reporting by non-employees

8.1 Whilst the majority of disclosures will be made by employees, there is scope within the legislation for non-employees and those associated with Bale's Farm to raise whistleblowing concerns. This may include clients, partners, volunteers or other persons with an association to Bale's Farm. Members of the public may also feel they wish to pursue a matter they feel is in the public interest.

2. 8.2 The procedure will not differ from that of an employee.
3. 8.3 It is worthy of mention that non- employees may not follow the procedure as prescribed and may take other routes to disclosure; as such it is important to be vigilant when considering or taking into any account any complaint made by individuals who are not directly employed by or associated with Bale's Farm.

9. Handling the disclosure

1. 9.1 Upon receipt of the disclosure, a meeting to discuss the concerns will be offered and held within a reasonable period. The meeting will be held in a confidential and private location and the following persons will be present, the employee raising the concern and the Appropriate Person to whom the concern has been raised (CEO or other senior manager– as set out in 6.1, above).
2. 9.2 This meeting will be of an exploratory nature depending on the nature of the concern and the employee can bring along someone to accompany them should they wish to. The individual will have the opportunity to detail the reasons for their disclosure and will use the meeting to share concerns; and share any supporting facts with the appropriate person chairing the meeting.
3. 9.3 The Appropriate Person will make a formal note of the meeting, which is shared with the whistle-blower within an agreed timeframe. The Appropriate Person will then notify the Senior Line Manager and CEO (unless one or both is implicated) that a whistleblowing disclosure has been made, and conduct the investigation. The identity of the whistle-blower will be protected throughout this process.
4. 9.4 The appropriate person will, having taken into account all the information presented, then agree with the individual the likely course of action in terms of next steps or remedying the situation; and agree timescales for action. The appropriate person will ask for any supporting proof presented at the meeting to be submitted as part of the process.

5. 9.5 Once the meeting has taken place the appropriate person to whom the disclosure was made will consider the information and decide whether there is a case to answer or whether an investigation should be conducted to establish the facts, who will undertake the investigation and what form it should take.
6. 9.6 If the disclosure falls more properly within other procedures (e.g. Disciplinary or Grievance) then they will advise you of this.
7. 9.7 The appropriate person to whom the employee initially makes the disclosure will, unless the employee is advised otherwise, act as the main point of contact in the matter and will be responsible for keeping the employee up-to-date on the outcome of investigations carried out and any actions taken as a result of the investigation.
8. 9.8 However where this impacts on the duty the organisation has to the confidentiality and safety of others, they may confirm the limits to the information that can be provided.
9. 9.9 If, following the meeting, the appropriate person to whom the disclosure is made decides not to proceed with an investigation, this decision will be explained as fully as possible to the complainant. It is then open to the complainant to appeal against the outcome to the CEO. The details of which will be provided to the employee making the disclosure by return.
10. 9.10 Whistleblowing incidents will be recorded on a central register by the Appropriate Person which outlines the date of the incident and who the Appropriate Person is. On the occasion that the Appropriate Person leaves / stands down from the board, their records must be shared with another person, usually the CEO or senior line manager unless exceptional circumstances apply.

10. External Disclosure

1. 10.1 It is hoped that this procedure will provide employees with the assurance they need to raise whistleblowing issues with Bale's Farm internally. However, we accept that there may be circumstances where employees feel it is more appropriate to make the disclosure to an external body. This is known as a 'Public Disclosure'.
2. 10.2 An external body may be non-regulatory; such as an MP or the police. Or, alternatively may be regulated, in which case, the disclosure can be made to 'prescribed' persons should the malpractice fall within that body's regulatory remit. These can include (but are not limited to):

- HM Revenue and Customers
- The Health and Safety Executive
- The Commissioners of Customs and Excise

- The Environment Agency
- The Charity Commission.
- The Information Commissioner
- The Financial Conduct Authority, or

- The Serious Fraud Office.

3. 10.3 The disclosure will be protected under the legislation in the same way as a disclosure made internally as long as it meets the same satisfying conditions.
4. 10.4 In this instance it is pragmatic to seek independent advice on this course of action prior to making this move which can be found by contacting the charity Public Concern at Work on 0207 404 6609. Public Concern at Work will be able to advise individuals whether, in their opinion, the disclosure to an outside body is advisable, would be appropriate, and under what circumstances they should consider contacting an outside body and how.
5. 10.5 A full list of prescribed persons and bodies can be found in the schedule to the Public Interest Disclosure (Prescribed Persons) Order 1999 (SI 1999/1549).
6. 10.6 In the event of an external disclosure the relevant regulatory or non-regulatory body will carry out investigations as necessary and to the procedures and processes set out by them.

11. Anonymous disclosure

1. 11.1 The identity of the individual raising the disclosure will be kept confidential, if so requested, for as long as possible, provided that this is compatible with a proper investigation.
2. 11.2 In view of the protection afforded to an individual raising a genuine concern, it is considered desirable that they disclose their name. However, there may be special or unusual circumstances where an individual considers it necessary to make an anonymous disclosure.
3. 11.3 Where an anonymous disclosure occurs the disclosure will be accepted and treated equally with those bearing a name. Anonymous claims can at times be more difficult to investigate as there is not the option to seek further information during investigation, and claimants cannot be contacted to discuss the outcome, however this should not act as a barrier to making an anonymous disclosure if the individual feels that this is the best course of action for them.

Disclosure to the media

It is advised that internal procedures surrounding whistleblowing should be followed before any disclosures to the media are made. External disclosures made that have not first followed internal procedures may be considered an unreasonable action under PIDA (see Appendix 1) and can potentially lead to disciplinary proceedings.

If you feel that your concern is not being dealt with properly through AUKS's internal Whistleblowing procedures, we recommend seeking legal advice before making any further disclosures as PIDA only affords protection to whistle blowers in certain circumstances.

Bale's Farm recognises that bribery and corruption are both serious matters and may be

Appendix 1

The Law

The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 (PIDA) applies to all employees and is in place in order to allow employees to raise legitimate concerns about matters that are of a public nature. These include situations where criminal offences, breaches of legislation and illegality occur. These are called "Qualifying Disclosures".

It is not necessary for the worker to have proof that such an act is being, has been, or is likely to be committed; a 'reasonable belief' is enough to form the basis of concerns.

Some examples of this may be:

- Criminal offences.
- Fraud, bribery or financial mismanagement.
- Mis-selling pensions or financial products.
- Abuse of vulnerable groups of people.
- Practices that put the health and safety of employees or customers at risk.
- Failure to comply with legal obligations.
- Breaches of legislation, such as the Data Protection Act.
- Covering up medical negligence.
- Causing damage to the environment.
- Concealment of any of the above.

For a disclosure to be protected it should be made in the appropriate manner to an Bale's Farm manager. For example, disclosing a serious health and safety issue to a manager and / or the Health and Safety Officer is likely to be protected, but not if the concern was disclosed directly to the newspapers or media without having first attempted to make the organisation aware of the problem.

This procedure provides guidance on what falls under the scope of the whistleblowing legislation, how any such issues may be raised in confidence within Bale's Farm and provides assurances that its employees will be protected from suffering from any detriment (i.e. victimisation, discrimination or dismissal) for raising any matters of public interest.

This policy will be reviewed annually. The next annual review will be 27/01/2022.
